

'The Full Story' Transition Year Writing Competition

To help showcase the amazing creativity of our TY students, Loreto College Foxrock, Loreto College St Stephen's Green, Loreto High School Beaufort and Loreto Secondary School Navan, are running our second annual Inter-College writing competition in honour of the Bicentenary of Teresa Ball. We are also delighted to announce that the author Dave Rudden, will be the independent adjudicator for the competition this year.

The winning entry will receive a €50 voucher and the runner(s)up a €30 voucher. Winning and runner-up pieces may be published in the respective College Yearbooks. Best of luck to you all and we look forward to seeing your Shakespeare side!

Closing Date

December 9th 2022. Please email your submission to your OWN School Librarian or English Teacher. St Stephen's Green students, please attach your entry as a document and email to: library@loretothegreen.ie. Students need to put 'The Full Story' in the email 'Subject' field

Criteria

1. A short story/piece of prose*/poetry inspired by the quote:

'Imagination governs the world'

(Napoleon Bonaparte)

OR

2. A short story/piece of prose*/poetry containing the phrase:

'For there is always light, if only we're brave enough to see it. If only we're brave enough to be it'

(Amanda Gorman)

OR

3. A short story/piece of prose*/poetry inspired by the following image

PLEASE NOTE: Short story/Prose option = Maximum of 1500 words.